Write It. Don't Send It Yet.

Keep writing the message. Just don't send the embarrassing version; otherwise you can't say.

Come back later and read it like someone there to hurt the other person back. The sentence in the middle that's basically, 'I arrived surrounded by a rant. And if you What you send may be much shorter than back to you tomorrow.' If you say tomorrow answer at all. If there's an actual safety After you've figured out what to send, re get heard about? What did they need right the message away without throwing that
